What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?

This corporation's primary overall objective shall be to better the life of children and their families by acting in accordance with the desire to express solid moral, educational, and societal values to an integrated group of children having diverse life experiences. Our mission is to educate the culturally diverse youth of Guanacaste, Costa Rica through bilingual experiential learning and enrichment at La Paz Community School that integrates the local community and environment, while preparing students to become thoughtful, contributing citizens in the global community.

Expenses
(Required for section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts, optional for others)

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.

28 Scholarship Fund The La Paz Scholarship Program prepares dedicated, talented, and exceptional local children to lead their communities and our world into the future. Our scholarship program integrates local underprivileged youth into the La Paz school community at a young age in order to help us preserve the unique local traditions and ecology while celebrating the peaceful integration of foreign cultures and ideas into the community. During the 2012-2013 school year there were 25 local students who are all excelling at La Paz as they transform into creative, analytical, and peaceful thinkers who are responsible, bilingual, active stewards of our community and beyond. Capital Campaign The La Paz Capital Development Fund provides the necessary infrastructure and resources to support high quality education for over 200 students from PreK - 12th grade. Donations contributed to the success of phase one which saw the construction of 3 new classrooms, 1 science laboratory, 2 covered outdoor classrooms, and office space on 2 hectares of donated land. General Fund The La Paz General Fund provides necessary educational materials such as books, art supplies, technology, uniforms and online educational services to improve the education of over 200 La Paz Community School students.
